BECAUSE HOPES GIVES HOPE

"I never stopped believing and dreaming of pursuing my studies and being able to support my country one day. HOPES scholarship provided me with this opportunity and strengthened my will to pursue my education with great determination and confidence. HOPES provided financial assistance, but most importantly, and through the constant follow up and support of the HOPES team, it has had a significant impact both on our personality and on our academic and learning path".

Shahed Al Khalaf

Academic Counselling

HOPES education counsellors offer academic counselling and information about access to various tertiary education opportunities at the HOPES Education Desks and through Information sessions at local universities.

- > More than 13,000 info seekers have received counselling
- > Info seekers can also find information about local, regional and international higher education study programmes on the HOPES website.
